Important Notice Regarding Distance Learning

Recent activity at the federal and state levels has prompted U.S. colleges and universities to comply with authorization requirements in each state to which they deliver instruction. Currently, Pensacola State College is authorized to provide distance learning courses and programs to students in the states listed below only. Contact information for consumer protection within the student's home state is also provided. However, should the need for conflict resolution arise, students should first attempt to resolve the issue with Pensacola State College directly (850-484-1751).
