

Pensacola State College Section Syllabus
SYG 2000
Introduction to Sociology
Fall 2023

Instructor: Tricia Dailey, M.S., M.A., Ed.S

Office: 1461

Email: tdailey@pensacolastate.edu

Credits: 3 cc

Offered: FA, SP, SU.

Textbooks:

Real World: Intro to Sociology; Kerry Ferris & Jill Stein; 9780393419337; 7th; Norton; 2020

Prerequisites:

Placement at the college level or completion of the appropriate exit-level developmental course(s) with a grade of C or better.

Distribution: Meets AA General Education Core, Social Sciences requirement.

Supplemental Materials:

None

Course Description: Introduces the student to the field of sociology as the systematic study of human group dynamics. Covers the theoretical foundations of sociology and their application to modern society. Some topics covered include: race and ethnicity, gender and age inequalities, globalization, education and politics. Invites the student to view and analyze their social world in a new and exciting perspective.

Special Requirements:

Student Expectations:

Students enrolled in this course can expect the following:

1. clearly identified course objectives;
2. productive class meetings;
3. a positive learning environment;
4. opportunities for appropriate student participation;
5. effective instruction;
6. positive and appropriate interactions;
7. assistance with meeting course objectives during and beyond class hours;
8. evaluation of student performance and appropriate and timely feedback; and
9. clear and well-organized instruction.

General Education Student Learning Outcomes:

Critical Thinking: The student analyzes, evaluates, and, if necessary, challenges the validity of ideas, principles, or data in order to develop informed opinions, probable predictions, or defensible conclusions.

Communication: The student effectively communicates knowledge and ideas.

Cultural Literacy: The student demonstrates an understanding of human culture and its diversity.

Course Learning Outcomes:

1. Illustrate how the sociological imagination and sociological concepts apply to their lives.
2. Compare and contrast basic theoretical orientations in sociology.
3. Interpret sociological research methods and results to identify correlation and causation.
4. Identify how the self develops socially, recognizing the connections between culture and the individual.
5. Describe the influences and interconnections of social structure, social forces and technology.

Methods of Evaluation:

At minimum, the instructor will cover content which aligns with statewide and institutional learning outcomes for the course. The instructor will measure student performance using the following: Essays, writing assignments, exams, discussion forums, quizzes, or any other assessment chosen by the instructor.

Grading Scale

Grades are issued at the end of each semester. All grades earned will be reflected on the official academic transcript. The following grading scale is used. Points will vary based on each class.

A	90%-100% (1400)
B+	87%-89% (1350-1399)
B	80%-86% (1300-1350)
C+	77%-79% (1250-1299)
C	70%-76% (1200-1250)
D+	67%-69% (1150-1199)
D	60%-66% (1000-1149)
F	0%-59% (0-999)

Final Grades for this course will be calculated as follows:

Assignment	Points
Final Exam	100
Midterm Exam	100
7 Assignments	650
3 Quizzes	300
10 Threaded Discussions	200
Participation	50
Total:	1400

Evaluations of student progress towards achieving the stated learning outcomes and performance objectives is the responsibility of the instructor, within the policies of the College and the department. Detailed explanations are included in the course supplementals developed by the instructor for each section being taught.

Course Description:

Explores the sociological analysis of society, its culture, and structure. Sociology is presented as a science with emphasis placed on its methodology and theoretical foundations. Topics include basic sociological concepts, socialization, social interaction and culture, social groups and institutions, deviance and social control, social stratification, social change, and marriage and family.

Competency Areas and Expected Student Outcomes

Basic Sociological Concepts:

Describe the sociological perspective.

Describe the main characteristics of the other social sciences.

Discuss the major theoretical perspectives and explain their use.

Explain the major research methods used in sociology.

Identify the problems researchers face in conducting valid research.

Socialization:

Recognize the different perspectives on the role of heredity and environment in the socialization process.

Identify the major theories and processes of development.

Explain the importance of agencies of socialization such as family, school, religion, peer groups, mass media, and the workplace.

Explain the major perspectives of socialization.

Culture:

Define culture and discuss the elements of culture including beliefs, values, norms, and language. Differentiate between material and the non-material culture, ethnocentrism and cultural relativism, and real vs. ideal culture.

Define subcultures and countercultures.

Explain cultural lag, cultural diffusion, and cultural leveling.

Social Structure and Social Interaction:

Describe the functions of status, roles, groups, and institutions in maintaining social structure.

Define society and differentiate the types of societies.

Explain the theories of social interaction.

Social Groups and Institutions:

Identify the major types of groups.

Explain the structure and processes of small groups.

Recognize and describe the major roles of such social institutions as the family, religion, education, health care providers, and political and economic institutions.

Identify types of formal organizations.

Identify and discuss the major types of government and economic systems.

Deviance and Social Control:

Describe the sociological and non-sociological approaches to deviance.

Discuss the three sociological perspectives of crime.

Explain major theories of deviance and crime.

Differentiate between formal and informal social controls.

Social Stratification:

Define social stratification.

Identify the two types of stratification systems.

Define open and closed systems of stratification.

Describe the major theoretical perspectives of stratification.

Explain how socioeconomic status is measured.

Describe the major social classes found in the United States.

Identify some of the consequences of social stratification.

Discuss the social sources of prejudice and discrimination.

Identify the psychological factors involved in prejudice and discrimination.

Explain the consequences of discrimination.

Identify the primary racial and ethnic minorities in America.

Discuss the sources and extent of gender stratification.

Identify and discuss the major problems related to age and social inequality.

Social Change:

Discuss the major theories of social change.

Identify the major sources of change.

Define collective behavior.

Discuss the various forms of collective behavior and the conditions necessary for development.

Describe the types of social movements

Trace the development of social movements.

Describe current patterns of population growth and social problems related to that growth.

Describe the processes of urban change

Identify the three theories of urban structure.

Discuss the major problems faced by American cities and some of the programs developed to resolve them.

Marriage and Family:

Discuss aspects of mate selection such as endogamy, exogamy, and homogamy.
Describe social class differences, racial and ethnic differences.
Discuss patterns of parenting and grand parenting.
Discuss adoption, dual-income families, single-parent families, stepfamilies.
Define some statistical trends in divorce.
Discuss factors associated with divorce.
Discuss the impact of divorce on children.
Discuss cohabitation, marriage without children, single parents, and alternative lifestyles.
Describe the theoretical views of family.

This class will discuss sensitive topics as it relates to society and trending issues. Please understand that, everyone is entitled to voice their opinion. We will show respect towards others and their opinions in this class!

There are movies that you will be required to watch in this class for testing and assignments purposes.

Communicating with the Instructor:

All students registered at Pensacola State College will be assigned a student email address. Your email address will be assigned upon first registration and will be active within 24 hours. Only use your PirateMail email account when contacting your instructor. and again, please enter your class CRN in the subject line for class identification purposes! If your PirateMail account is not working for some reason, or in an emergency, you may use your personal email, but please note that policy does not permit me to discuss academic matters via personal email accounts.

Email Etiquette and Instructions

When writing to your professors, always include the course name (SYG 2000) in the subject line and CRN number. Address your professor with a greeting (Dear Professor Dailey). Please write professionally in all college communications including discussion comments and emails. Only use your PirateMail email account when contacting your instructor and again, please enter your class CRN in the subject line for class identification purposes! If your PirateMail email account is not working for some reason, or in an emergency, you may use your personal email, but please note that policy does not permit me to discuss academic matters via personal email accounts.

Subject Matter Disclaimer

In this course, students may be required to read about and discuss controversial topics such as politics, religion, racism, sexuality, violence, etc. Course materials are selected for their scientific, historical, stylistic, and cultural relevance, and are meant to be examined within the context of intellectual inquiry characteristic of learning at the college level. As such, this content will always be dealt with in a mature, honest, and constructive manner. By continuing in this course, you are agreeing to be held academically accountable for all required materials in the syllabus, regardless of their potentially sensitive nature.

Course Requirements & Expectations:

- Some of the ideas, readings, discussions, and topics in this course will contain profanity, violence, sexuality, religious references, philosophy, and other adult content. This content will be discussed in a mature, and academic manner at all times. Students should be advised that this content may be offensive to some. Be aware and informed about what we read/view/discuss in class. Please address concerns with the instructor before they become an issue. Course content will always be dealt with in a respectful, mature, honest, and constructive manner. By continuing in this course, you are agreeing to be held academically accountable for all required materials in the syllabus, regardless of their sensitive nature.

- In this course, students are required to read about and discuss controversial topics such as politics, religion, racism, sexuality, violence, etc. Course materials are selected for cultural relevance, trending topics and are meant to be examined within the context of intellectual inquiry characteristic of learning at the college level. As such, if there are any signs of disrespect, I will address it immediately, there are no second chances with disrespect in my class. I will not tolerate it under any circumstance. If you have any personal issues with anything posted in the class, you are to email me directly.
- This is a college course. All students are assumed to be adults and will be held to adult standards of accountability and decorum. You are expected to familiarize yourself with the requirements of the course. You are expected to meet the requirements of the course without having to be reminded of such clearly posted things as exam dates. It is expected that you will do the required reading for the course prior to attending class. It is expected that you will complete all required assignments on time. If you have questions, you are expected to ask the instructor to seek clarification. At various times during the course, we will be discussing highly controversial topics. Students may have strong feelings that conflict with the feelings of others on these issues. Mutual respect and politeness are required in the classroom, and online at all times. Violations of appropriate classroom decorum will result in penalties including, but not limited to reduction in the student's grade in the course, administratively dropping the student from the course, and reporting the student's behavior to the University for further action under the Conduct Code. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that befits an academic setting. I regard the classroom is a "free speech" zone. However, you must exercise that freedom responsibly. Measure your comments and always be respectful of others. Personal attacks will not be tolerated.

Classroom Policies and Procedures

Regular and consistent attendance is necessary to perform well in this course. Students are expected to attend all classes and class attendance will be recorded daily. You will earn participations points in class.

- ❖ Please note:* There are no make ups for this class activities. You must complete assignments to earn the activity points. Also, if for some reason you miss a class meeting, it is your responsibility to contact a classmate for missed notes and assignments, the instructor will not regurgitate information discussed or presented.
- ❖ There are perks for perfect attendance and maintaining an A, the entire semester. Perfect attendance means that, you do not miss a seated class. Again, I DO NOT ALLOW ANY MAKE UP WORK.
- ❖ Pop quizzes will be given frequently throughout the semester.
- ❖ All movies can be found on Amazon, You Tube, Hulu or Vudu, or the Public Library. You are responsible for watching the movies assigned for this class if you miss class. All the films will be shown in class.
- ❖ All assignments must be typed in MS Word, I do not accept handwritten assignments.

Late Policy:

I do not accept late work.

Important Dates:

August 21	First Day of classes for Spring Semester
August 25	Drop/Add period ends (A/B term)
September 4	Labor Day (No Classes)
October 16	Midterms
November 7	Last Day to Withdraw
November 10	Veteran's Day (No Classes)
November 22-26	Fall Break (No Classes)
TBA	Finals Begin
December 15	Last Day Class
December 17	Fall Commencement
December 21 – Jan 2	Winter Break (No Classes)

Academic Integrity

The college promotes and expects all members of the college community to conduct themselves professionally and with intellectual integrity. Academic integrity is an integral part of the learning environment. Any infraction of this policy is detrimental to the students' education and the integrity of the college. Cases of academic dishonesty that are strictly forbidden include the following:

- Plagiarizing any assignment or part of an assignment. Plagiarizing means using someone else's ideas or words as your own without giving appropriate credit, without using quotation marks if necessary, and without citing the source(s).
- Copying and submitting another's work as your own.
- Using unauthorized notes or equipment (programmable calculator, pda, cell phone, etc.) during an examination.
- Stealing an examination or using a stolen examination for any purpose.
- Allowing another student to have access to your work, thereby enabling that student to represent the work as his or her own.
- Having someone else take a quiz or exam in your place, taking an exam for someone else, assisting someone in any way during a quiz or exam, or using any unauthorized electronic device or other unauthorized method of support during a quiz or exam.
- Falsifying or fabricating information, such as data for a lab report.
- Falsifying a patient's medical record or a student's clinical record (or any other student record, including a record of attendance).
- Using another person's file or copying another student's computer program.
- Recycling papers or any assignments already submitted for another class at this or any other institution (i.e. Self-plagiarism).
- Other forms of cheating or dishonesty are forbidden, even if not listed here specifically.

Instructors may use any one or more of the following disciplinary measures for addressing instances of dishonesty:

- Award a grade of zero for the assignment.
- Assign a failing grade for the course.
- Recommend the dismissal of the student from the program or college.

Student Email Accounts:

Pensacola State College provides an institutional email account to all students enrolled in courses for credit. PirateMail is the official method of communication, and students must use PirateMail when communicating with the College. In cases where companion software is used for a particular class, email may be exchanged between instructor and student using the companion software.

Flexibility:

It is the intention of the instructor to accomplish the objectives specified in the course syllabus. However, circumstances may arise which prohibit the fulfilling of this endeavor. Therefore, this syllabus is subject to change. When possible, students will be notified of any change in advance of its occurrence.

ADA Statement:

Students with a disability that falls under the Americans with Disability Act or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, it is the responsibility of the student to notify Student Resource Center for ADA Services to discuss any special needs or equipment necessary to accomplish the requirements for this course. Upon completion of registration with the Student Resource Center for ADA Services office, specific arrangements can be discussed with the instructor.

Equity Statement:

Pensacola State College does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, ethnicity, religion, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or genetic information in its programs, activities, and employment. For inquiries regarding the College's nondiscrimination policies, contact the Executive Director of Institutional Equity and Student Conduct, 1000 College Blvd., Building 5, Pensacola, Florida 32504, (850) 484-1759.

Security Statement:

Pensacola State College is committed to encouraging all members of the College community to be proactive in personal safety measures. In case of emergency, students should ensure that they are aware of the building exit closest to each of their classrooms, as well as all alternative building exits in case circumstances require using a different route.

Emergency Statement:

In the case of severe weather or other emergency, the College administration maintains communication with appropriate state and local agencies and makes a determination regarding the cancellation of classes. Notices of cancellation will be made through the College's PSC Alert system and on the College's website.