Methods of Evaluation:

At minimum, the instructor will cover content which aligns with statewide and institutional learning outcomes for the course. The instructor will measure student performance using the following:

Grading Scale:
90 - 100	A
87 - 89	B+
80 - 86	B
77 - 79	C+
70 - 76	C
67 - 69	D+
60 - 66	D
0-59	F

Grading Calculation
Exams (3, including Final at 23.33% each)	70%
Research Papers (3 at 10% each)	30%
Totals	100%

3 essay-style exams (23.33% each); and three two-page course topic research papers (graded for grammar, content, and style, and counting 10% each)

Exams:

- A.) There will be three exams, including the final, each counting 23.33 %.
- B.) All three exams will be essay-style blue book exams in which ten terms must be thoroughly identified in paragraph style answers. In a well-written manner, the student, using critical thinking skills, will identify the test terms by utilizing the following material – who, what, where, when, and why.
- C.) Reviews before each exam may be scheduled if the need arises.
- D.) The final exam will not be cumulative
- E.) If you miss a test, you must have a doctor's excuse or an administration official's excuse in order to take a make-up.

Evaluations of student progress towards achieving the stated learning outcomes and performance objectives is the responsibility of the instructor, within the policies of the College and the department. Detailed explanations are included in the course supplementals developed by the instructor for each section being taught.

Student Email Accounts:

Pensacola State College provides an institutional email account to all students enrolled in courses for credit. PirateMail is the official method of communication, and students must use PirateMail when communicating with the College. In cases where companion software is used for a particular class, email may be exchanged between instructor and student using the companion software.

Flexibility:

It is the intention of the instructor to accomplish the objectives specified in the course syllabus. However, circumstances may arise which prohibit the fulfilling of this endeavor. Therefore, this syllabus is subject to change. When possible, students will be notified of any change in advance of its occurrence.
