Course Policies (This class will be conducted under the regulations defined in the Pensacola State College Student Code of Conduct):

1. Regular, punctual attendance:

- a. Regular attendance is required. Students may withdraw themselves before the withdrawal date July 27th, 2023, which is the 70% point of the semester. After that date, students must be assigned a grade (A, B, C, D, or F). A student who stops attending after the withdrawal date July 27th, 2023 may be assigned an F.
- b. Excessive absences (more than 3) will result in losing points from your Engagement grade. You will lose 2 points for each absence after your 3rd absence.

2. You are not permitted to use your personal laptop in class instead of the lab computer to complete activities; should you have special circumstances that require a waiver of this class policy, please see me.

3. Persistent talking while the instructor or another student is talking is disrespectful to both me and your classmates. You will be given a warning and then asked to leave if the disruption persists.

4. Makeup or late work:

- Quizzes: You MAY NOT make up quizzes.

- Writing assignments submitted on Canvas should be turned in on time. Late assignments will get half-credit when turned in late.
- You have two late passes for essays. You will have to contact me within 24 hours after the due date of the essay to use this pass.
- The in-class timed essay will be announced ahead of time. If you miss the timed essay, you will have one week to make it up, but you will lose ten (10) points. You cannot use your late passes on this essay. This essay must be made up at the Testing Center on campus. You are responsible for contacting the Testing Center and making an appointment by going to Pensacola State College Exam Selection | Registerblast.

Cheating and Plagiarism Policy: Plagiarism is the use of anyone else's ideas or words without giving proper credit or documentation. Cheating includes but is not limited to copying someone else's work, turning in work done by someone else, or turning in work that has been submitted in another class by you or anyone else. The consequences of either plagiarism or cheating are an automatic zero (0) on the assignment that was plagiarized and possible failure of the course or discipline by the college.

Turnitin: For this course, when you submit a writing assignment to the drop box in Canvas, your paper will automatically be submitted to Turnitin. Turnitin will determine how much of your assignment is your own words and how much is quoted or plagiarized.

Maximum Attempts: Any student still on the official class roll after the drop period will be counted as having attempted the course whether or not he or she finishes the class. The third attempt to take a college course will cost three (3) times the cost of the first two (2) attempts.

Student Perception Surveys – EvaluationKit: Toward the end of the semester, you will receive a notification in PirateMail with a link to EvaluationKit, the online evaluation system used by Pensacola State College. Please take advantage of this opportunity to provide anonymous feedback to your instructors about their courses. Your opinions are valuable, and your evaluations enable instructors to assess their teaching style and help them decide what changes to consider in curriculum, textbooks, or assignments.
