Course Description: A study of the American federal system of government with emphasis on the constitutional distribution of powers among the legislative, executive, and judicial branches and the states. An analysis of policy formation as related to democratic theory and the role of government in the society.

Class Meeting Time: M-W 11:00-12:15

Class Location: Pensacola Campus, Rm 1441

Credits: 3 cc

Prerequisites: ENC 1101C with a grade of C or better.

Offered: FA, SP, SU.

Distribution: Meets AA General Education Core, Social Sciences requirement. A writing emphasis course. Satisfies the State of Florida civic literacy requirement.

Required Textbooks and Instructional Materials: Free "Open Educational Resources" required. Please see your instructor.

Supplemental Textbooks and Instructional Materials: None.

Special Requirements:

Writing Emphasis Requirement: A minimum of three fully developed, multi-paragraph, evaluated writing assignments, not including a final examination, are required.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: Instructors provide detailed feedback regarding the content, organization, and use of standard written English for each evaluated writing assignment.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: Instructors return each evaluated writing assignment to a student before submission of the next evaluated writing assignment.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: Only individual student work may count toward the minimum three evaluated writing assignments.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: Grading rubrics will be used for each evaluated writing assignment. These rubrics will be shared with each student.

Writing Emphasis Requirement: The grades earned on the writing assignments must reflect student performance in college-level writing and significantly impact the final course grade.

Methods of Evaluation:

At minimum, the instructor will cover content which aligns with statewide and institutional learning outcomes for the course. The instructor will measure student performance using the following:

Grading Scale:
90% - 100%	A
87% - 89%	B+
80% - 86%	B
77% - 79%	C+
70% - 76%	C
67% - 69%	D+
60% - 66%	D
0% - 59%	F

Grading Calculation
Exam One	15%
Midterm Exam	15%
Final Exam	15%
3 Writing Assignments @10% each	30%
Participation (discussion or quiz)/Attendance	25%
Totals	100%

Evaluations of student progress towards achieving the stated learning outcomes and performance objectives is the responsibility of the instructor, within the policies of the College and the department. Detailed explanations are included in the course supplementals developed by the instructor for each section being taught.

[Exams: Exams will be conducted in the online Canvas domain, and will be proctored using Canvas. We will not be using any sort of lockdown browser. A review for each exam will be made available.

Written assignments: You will be submitting 3 written assignments throughout the semester (the due dates for each are noted in the semester schedule), each covering major themes and issues covered in the textbook and the classroom. In each of these assignments, you will argue/take a side on an issue. All writing assignments will be submitted electronically, via Canvas. You will be issued topics/prompts at least one week before each writing assignment is due. Length will range from 2 – 4 pages (although I reserve the right to use word count instead), double spaced, 12 point font.

Turnitin: Your writing assignments will be submitted via Turnitin. Some of you might be familiar with this program. Turnitin is used as a plagiarism checker. If you submit drafts of your papers BEFORE they are due, you will have the opportunity to revise areas of your paper where you might be unintentionally plagiarizing sources and/or not citing them correctly. We will discuss this further in class before the due date of your first written assignment.

Participation: Your participation in this exercise counts for 25 percent of your total grade. Your participation grade will be evaluated by your attendance, participation in our classroom discussions, and occasional participation exercises. I will discuss this further in the first week of the course.

Student Expectations: Students enrolled in this course can expect the following:

1. clearly identified course objectives;

Academic Dishonesty Statement:

Pensacola State College is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic conduct. All forms of academic dishonesty, to include plagiarism and cheating, are prohibited. Penalties for academic dishonesty include but are not limited to one or more of the following: the awarding of no credit on the assignment, a reduction in the course grade, or the assignment of a final course grade of F and removal from the course. See the College Catalog for more details: <https://pensacolastate.smartcatalogiq.com/en/2023-2024/Catalog/Student-Handbook/Student-Responsibilities/Plagiarism-and-Academic-Cheating>

Student Email Accounts:

Pensacola State College provides an institutional email account to all students enrolled in courses for credit. PirateMail is the official method of communication, and students must use PirateMail when communicating with the College. In cases where companion software is used for a particular class, email may be exchanged between instructor and student using the companion software.

Flexibility:

It is the intention of the instructor to accomplish the objectives specified in the course syllabus. However, circumstances may arise which prohibit the fulfilling of this endeavor. Therefore, this syllabus is subject to change. When possible, students will be notified of any change in advance of its occurrence.

ADA Statement:

Students with a disability that falls under the Americans with Disability Act or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, it is the responsibility of the student to notify Student Resource Center for ADA Services to discuss any special needs or equipment necessary to accomplish the requirements for this course. Upon completion of registration with the Student Resource Center for ADA Services office, specific arrangements can be discussed with the instructor.

Equity Statement:

Pensacola State College does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, ethnicity, religion, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or genetic information in its programs, activities, and employment. For inquiries regarding the College's nondiscrimination policies, contact the Executive Director of Institutional Equity and Student Conduct, 1000 College Blvd., Building 5, Pensacola, Florida 32504, (850) 484-1759.

Security Statement:

Pensacola State College is committed to encouraging all members of the College community to be proactive in personal safety measures. In case of emergency, students should ensure that they are aware of the building exit closest to each of their classrooms, as well as all alternative building exits in case circumstances require using a different route.

Emergency Statement:

In the case of severe weather or other emergency, the College administration maintains communication with appropriate state and local agencies and makes a determination regarding the cancellation of classes. Notices of cancellation will be made through the College's PSC Alert system and on the College's website.

Course Policies:Attendance policy:

Regular, punctual participation is required per the Pensacola State College Catalog.

If a student is excessively absent—absent for more than 4 classes, regardless of circumstance—each additional absence will result in a 10% penalty of your total grade. If you anticipate this being a problem, please see me immediately upon start of semester.

A note on attendance: "Participate in class. You are paying for it. More importantly, you are here to learn, aren't you? There is no substitute for classroom interaction." (imagine me saying this to you out loud)

PSC's no smoking policy includes a ban on e-cigarettes even in Live Online format.

If you are asked to leave the class discussion board for violating class policies, you will be counted absent from that discussion and may not be allowed to make up work from that week's discussion. Before returning to class, you must meet with the instructor and/or the Director of Student Conduct.

 Late work will be accepted under special circumstances, but points will be taken off (how many points? Depends). My advice: just get the work done on time

Cheating and Plagiarism Policy: Plagiarism is the use of anyone else's ideas or words without giving proper credit. Cheating includes, among other things, copying someone else's work, turning in work done by someone else, or turning in work that has been submitted in another class by you or anyone else. The consequences of either plagiarism or cheating are an automatic zero (0) on the work in question and possible failure of the course or discipline by the college. Please refer to the College Catalog for the college policy regarding cheating and plagiarism.

Student Perception Surveys – EvaluationKit: During the term, you will receive a notification in PirateMail and/or Canvas with a link to EvaluationKit, the online evaluation system used by Pensacola State College. Please take advantage of this opportunity to provide anonymous feedback to your instructors about their courses. Your opinions are valuable, and your evaluations enable instructors to assess their teaching style and help them decide what changes to consider in curriculum, textbooks, or assignments.

Flexibility Statement: It is the intention of the instructor to accomplish the objectives specified in the course syllabus. However, circumstances may arise which prohibit the fulfilling of this endeavor. Therefore, this syllabus is subject to change. When possible, students will be notified of any change in advance of its occurrence.

If you miss something in class, first consult your syllabus, and then get with a classmate for any notes you might need. Do not email me with "what did I miss?" or "did I miss anything important?" While I will be happy to answer any specific questions you might have, after you have consulted with classmates about getting notes, I will not redeliver entire lectures in response to "what did I miss?"

A note on COURTESY: I take courtesy seriously and reserve the right to adjust your final grade if courtesy becomes an issue. Classroom courtesy is necessary to ensure that all students have the opportunity to learn without distractions. This means no cell phones, talking during lectures (unless recognized by the instructor), reading newspapers, sleeping, etc. during class.

While email is the best method for contacting me, be reasonable in your expectations of response times. I check my email multiple times a day and generally can respond within 24 hours rather than 24 minutes. Also, I am unlikely to respond to emails from 9pm – 8am. Lastly, instructors are people too and need time to recuperate from the week. As such, I will not respond to any emails on Sundays. Lastly, please email me with your assigned PSC email and make sure I know what class you are taking. Non-university assigned email addresses have a way of ending up in spam folders that I do not check on a regular basis. As a side note, if you're still rocking the "rolltide2023@hotmail" or "queen of tictok32@gmail" email address, it is time to upgrade to something more professional!

This class will be conducted under the regulations defined in the Pensacola State College Code of Student Conduct in the College Catalog.

Additional Information on Plagiarism

Your writing is your intellectual property. Guard it carefully. You could find yourself in the unpleasant position of trying to prove that you are the true author of this work. Save preliminary drafts of your work, reading notes, data collection sheets, and copies of library sources you make while researching your paper. You may be asked to produce these if questions of authorship arise. Make back-up copies to protect your work from computer failures.

I reserve the right to submit written assignments to the Turnitin service or use other methods to evaluate the originality of the work submitted. I will remove personal identifiers from any electronic files I submit to the Turnitin database for evaluation.

Plagiarism is a serious violation of academic standards and will be punished severely. Students who plagiarize will fail the course and will be referred to the Dean for academic dishonesty. Some students are surprised to learn that they plagiarized themselves when they inappropriately used work produced for one course in another course. If you are unsure, ask your instructor for guidance. See the PSC Student Code of Conduct for information about the University policy on academic conduct and plagiarism and the consequences for students who engage in academic misconduct.

You may feel the urge to plagiarize. Don't do it. You will be caught, and you will be punished severely. I have testified at several academic misconduct proceedings. To a person, the perpetrator regrets his/her/their decision. Punishments vary, don't gamble with your academic career. These are short papers, do the work. Your paper will go through a plagiarism checker, so DON'T CUT AND PASTE from an online source.

If I suspect AI was used as the primary source for your work, you will be required to complete additional in-class verification of knowledge to ensure that are satisfying the desired outcomes for this class. This may be accomplished by written or discussion-based inquiry, at instructor's preference.
